

ATTENDANCE

Regular class attendance is expected. Policies with respect to class attendance, class participation and course requirements will be set by the professor of each class. Judgment of failure to meet minimum standards, with the consequence of failure in the course, will be the prerogative of the individual professor. Failure to attend classes on a regular basis could jeopardize international/Canadian student's visa status in the United States.