

OUT-OF-STATE FINANCIAL AID PROGRAMS

A number of states other than New York participate in state grant programs which are of interest to relatively smaller groups of students and prospective students than those described on the preceding pages. For further information and addresses contact the financial aid office, or contact the appropriate state agency which administers state financial aid programs.