

COMPUTER CRIME, MINOR

The minor in computer crime is an interdisciplinary program that will require study in criminal justice and computer and information sciences. It requires the completion of six courses. Students wishing to pursue the minor in computer crime should contact either the Chair of the Department of Computer and Information Sciences or the Chair of the Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice.

Code	Title	Credits
Course Requirements
CRJ 101	Intro to Crim Just	3
CRJ 102	Criminology	3
CRJ 350	Criminal Law	3
CIS 270	Computer Hardware & Systems	3
CIS 285	Computer Forensics I ¹	3
CIS 385	Computer Forensics II ²	3
or CIS 485	Information Security
Total Credits		18

¹ prereq CIS 270 Computer Hardware & Systems

² prereq CIS 285 Computer Forensics I