

FORENSIC SCIENCE, MINOR

The minor in forensic science is an interdisciplinary program that will require study in chemistry and computer and information sciences. It requires the completion of six courses. Students wishing to pursue the minor in computer crime should contact the Chair of the department of biochemistry, chemistry, and physics or the Chair of the department of computer and information sciences.

Code	Title	Credits
Course Requirements
CIS 270	Computer Hardware & Systems	3
CIS 285	Computer Forensics I ¹	3
CIS 385	Computer Forensics II ²	3
PHY 108	CSI NU: Physical Forensics	3
CHE 108	Forensic Science	3
ONE additional approved non-CIS course		3
Total Credits		18

¹ prereq CIS 270 Computer Hardware & Systems

² prereq CIS 285 Computer Forensics I