

LAW AND JURISPRUDENCE, MINOR

The Law and Jurisprudence minor is an interdisciplinary minor requiring students to complete a total of six courses, with three of these courses chosen from the core curriculum of Law and Jurisprudence in Political Science (areas 1 and 2) and the three remaining courses chosen as electives from other departments (area 3).

Code	Title	Credits
Area One
Required Course
POL 203	Introduction to Law (Required)	3
Area Two
Political Science Courses
Select two of the following:		6
POL 220	Women and the Law
POL 271	Politics Thr Lit
POL 354	Constitutional Law
POL 355	Civil Liberties
POL 358	Amer Judic Process
POL 386	International Law
POL 398	Topic: (Civil Rights, Mental Health Law, Healthcare Law and Policy, Environmental Law)
Area Three
Electives
Select three of the following: ¹		9
CMS 395	Mass Communications Law
CRJ 265	Principles Justice
CRJ 350	Criminal Law
CRJ 360	Criminal Procedure
CRJ 380	Sentencing
CRJ 397	Topic: (American Criminal Courts, Trial Advocacy, White Collar Crime)
ECO 310	Law and Economics
HIS 305	History of England to 1688
HIS 306	Modern Britain
HIS 342	Growth of American Democracy
HIS 346	Black Freedom Movement
HIS 354	Origins of the Urban Crisis
HIS 390	Special Topics in History (Policing the City)
HST 244	Hotel & Tourism Law
LAW 205	Legal Env of Business
LAW 301	Business Law I
LAW 302	Business Law II
MGT 344	Employment Law and Human Resource
PHI 300	Logic
PHI 304	Social and Political Philosophy
PHI 325	Philosophy of Law
SPK 101	Public Speaking
SPM 244	Recreation & Sport Law
Total Credits		18

¹ A special topics course on law-related issue may be substituted for one of the three required Area Three courses listed above. Substitutions must be approved in advance by the Director of the Pre-Law Advisement Program.

Additional Resources

Students may declare a minor in Law and Jurisprudence through myNU (the online form is available under the "Academics" tab). Declared Law and Jurisprudence minors gain access to Niagara's Pre-Law Canvas site, where students can learn about:

- guest speakers from the legal community;
- legal internships and job opportunities;
- course offerings in Law and Jurisprudence;
- updates on developments in the law;
- the Pre-Law Student Association's meetings and activities—including the club's annual visit to the U.S. Supreme Court;
- the NU Mock Trial Team;
- induction into Phi Delta Phi, the International Legal Honor Society;
- resources to help students navigate the path to law school—including free LSAT prep materials; and much more.