

RELIGIOUS STUDIES, B.A.

REL 357	Christian Social Responsibility	3
REL 358	Morality And Medicine	3

The major program in religious studies includes four interrelated areas of study: comparative religion, biblical studies, Christianity and Christian ethics. A candidate for this degree must complete courses in each area for a total of 10 units plus those three per the general university requirements, for a total of 13 units overall. Units assigned to each discipline may, with departmental advisement, be modified to meet the career needs of students.

Majors should consult course descriptions for classifications of each course.
